MANUSCRIPTS.

- 1053 Abridgement of those records of the Session, or supreme civil court of Scotland, commonly called the Books of Sederunt, from the first downsitting of that judicature in the year 1532, containing the nomination and admission of Judges, Advocates, Clerks, and other members of Court, with the acts and statutes; as also, the decreets of Court, (so long as they were recorded in these records, called the Books of Sederunt, which was till the year 1615), together with some legal and political notes, and many historical remarks of the times, added by the abridger from our ancient and modern histories of this kingdom, 2 vol. in folio, 12l 12s

This ample and curious selection from the records of Session formerly belonged to Sir Alexander Seton of Pitmedden, one of the Judges in the reign of Charles II., and has many marginal notes and observations in his handwriting. It is continued down to the Revolution in 1688; and, besides several acts of sederunt, not to be found in any printed collection, the original record of which is now lost, it contains many minute and characteristical facts, illustrative of the state of Scottish jurisprudence in the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries.

- 1054 Abstracts and transcripts from the rolls of Parliament and the public records, of whatever relates to the peerage of Scotland, 1 vol. 4to, neatly written by the late J. Hardie, 2l 12s 6d
- 1055 Abstract from the public records, &c. of charters, acts of Parliament, treaties, &c. concerning the stewartry and principality of Scotland, the dutchy of Cornwall, the principality of Wales, and earldom of Chester, the dutchy of Normandy, and the Dauphine of France, 1 vol. 4to, elegantly written by J. Hardie, 2l 2s

- 1056 The Rolment of Courtis, contenand the auldest lawes, actis, statutis, constitutiones, and antiquities, of his Majesties native and maist ancient realme of Scotland, &c. laithie collectit, written & set furth be me Abacuk Bisset, Edinburgensis: nevir imprented nor published of befoir, 1 vol. folio, 5l 5s

The author of this compilation lived in the reign of James VI., and was servant or clerk to the celebrated Sir John Skene of Curriehill. The work is divided into six parts: 1. The form of civil proces; nearly the same with that published by Skene, but more ample and correct; and having, in addition, the ancient forms of proces used before the institution of the Court of Session by James V.—2. The jurisdiction and forms of proces of the ecclesiastical and consistorial courts.—3. The foundation and erection of religious houses in Scotland.—4. The admiral and sea laws.—5. The erection of burghs, and privileges and confirmations thereanent.—6. Of the computation of times. This work, though plainly intended for publication, was never printed. This copy is in the author's handwriting, and in excellent preservation. Another copy is preserved in the library of the Faculty of Advocates.

- 1057 Chartæ de Cella de Coldingham, in ecclesia Dunelmensi conservatæ. An authenticated transcript from the original MSS. in the Advocates Library, 1 vol. 4to, neatly written, 1l 11s 6d

- 1058 A manuscript volume in folio, containing, 1. A collection of patents of honour, and state papers, relative to Scotland in the reign of Charles I.—2. A copy of the retour and valuation of the haill lands in Scotland, at and prior to 1554.—3. Note of fees in Chancery, as paid of old.—4. State of the Crown rents in Scotland, drawn up by Sir William Purves of Woodhouselee, solicitor to Charles I. in 1667.—5. The maritime laws of Oleron & Wisby, 1l 11s 6d

- 1059 A manuscript volume, large folio, containing dissertations on various titles of the law of Scotland, and a full state of the records, in all the different departments, prior to their removal from the Laigh Parliament House, 2l 2s

- 1060 An ancient transcript of the rolls of the Parliaments of England in the reign of Henry V. 1 vol. folio, boards, 10s 6d

- 1061 A list of acts of the Parliament of England from the reign of Henry VII. to that of James I. 1 vol. folio, imperfect, 5s

- 1062 Extract of decret of the Court of Session in favour of Brigadier General Preston, purchaser of the lands of Valleyfield, dated 1715, 2s 6d

- 1063 A fine manuscript on vellum, most likely of the 15th century, being four books 'Dialogorum Beati Gregorii Pape Urbis Rome.' They chiefly relate to the miracles performed by saints and other inspired persons. bound in wood, 4to, 1l 1s

- 1064 A treattise refuting Buchanan's book, 'De Jure Regni apud Scotos,' bearing to have been written by John Corfs, under-keeper of the records, anno 1739; and contains copies of several authentic instruments, 8vo, 12s

- X 1065 An ancient missal, seemingly of the 13th century, written on vellum. The music of the hymns is given along with the words. It is imperfect; and what follows is written in a French hand on the margin of one of the folios, 'Ce present Livre appartient à moy L'Eglise de Chiffreau,' 4to 15s
- X 1066 A manuscript, on vellum, of the 14th century, intituled, 'Libellus Beati Anselmi Archiepiscopi de similitudinibus;' and at the end is the following note: 'Explicit Libellus Anselmi Archiepiscopi Cantuariensis de viciis et virtutibus.' The index at the end affords a fine specimen of the arabic figures as used at that early period, 4to, 1l 11s 6d
- X 1067 A manuscript, on paper, with a few folios of vellum interspersed, written in the 14th century, by a monk of the Carthusian order of some religious house in Ireland, being chiefly excerpts from the writings 'Abbatis Bernardi Clarevallensis,' who, in this book, is said to have been present at a council held at Rheims by Calixtus II. The first excerpts are from Bernard's life of St Malachy, 'Pontificis et Metropolitani totius Hibernie.' The others are from his sermons and religious discourses, small 4to, 1l 11s 6d
- 1068 A manuscript of the 16th and 17th centuries, of which the principal part is a copy or record of the different rent-rolls given up to Government by the different Popish Beneficiaries after the Reformation in Scotland, and principally in the year 1561-66, the thirds of which were to be set apart for the provision of the clergy. This record has been kept by Murray of Tullibardin, the comptroller. The volume also contains copies of rentals of several bishopricks, &c. as Argyle, Orkney, Galloway, St Andrews, &c. written about the year 1695; and an historical account of several of the Scots bishops, in the handwriting of Robert Mylne, writer in Edinburgh, to whom the volume appears to have belonged. Folio
- X 1069 Notes of the transactions of K. James VI. addressed to Charles I., written (in Latin) by Alexander Hay, seemingly compiled for the purpose of composing a more extensive history. The manuscript is a rare specimen of fine writing in the 17th century, 1l 11s 6d
- X 1070 A manuscript, bound in wood, written on vellum, in a double column, most likely in the 14th century. The beginning and end are lost. It consists of prayers, accounts of different saints, and excerpts from their writings, 4to, 10s 6d
- 1071 A collection of writings respecting church rents, Lords of erection, taxt-rolls, &c. copied from the Exchequer and other records, about the year 1720 or 1730. A part of the writing is effaced, folio, 1l 1s
- X 1072 A manuscript, being the common-place book of some writer or lawyer about the year 1700; containing an index to the acts of federunt, and to Craig de feudis, with a copy of part of Pitcottie's history of Scotland, folio, 7s 6d

- X 1073 A manuscript of the year 1680, or thereabouts, which has belonged to Sir William Nicolson, being copies of practises in the law of Scotland, and others relating to process before the Court of Session and Admiralty, folio, 10s 6d
- 1074 The just compt of the salt exportit at ye port of Kirkcaldie fra the first day of November 1629 to the first day of November 1630, maid & given up be Johne Williamson and William Tennant, Baillies, and William Bervie Treasurer in the said burghe, 4to, 10s 6d
- 1075 A MS. in quarto, containing, 1. 'A true relation of those matters which concern the kirk of Scotland, from 1st August 1637 to 4th August 1638, by the Earl of Rothes.' This MS. consists of the historical informations drawn up by Lord Rothes and Johnston of Warriston, with additional notes and details by the former, for his private use. See Laing's history of Scotland, vol. i. p. 128, note. 2. A preface, by George first Earl of Cromartie, affixed to the records of the first General Assemblies of the kirk of Scotland, containing a vindication of the first Reformation from the charges of tumult and rebellion, and a curious account of the fate of the original records.
This volume appears to have belonged to Lord Grange, brother to John Earl of Marr.
- 1076 Ane account of several things, and remarkable passages, excerpted out of the minute books of Privie Seal Registers, from anno 1499, where they commence, to this time (1707), by R. M. 1 vol. 8vo, 1l 1s
- X 1077 Jok Upalandis newis and dream, a very neat MS. of the early part of the 17th century, folio, 10s 6d
This curious treatise contains an elaborate, but insidious vindication of the introduction of prelacy into Scotland by James VI., adapted to common capacities; it is in the form of a dialogue between two country men; and exhibits no unfavourable specimen of the language of the time.
- 1078 Critical remarks upon Burman's notes on Ovid's works, edit. Amst. 1727; and on the same editor's Lucan's Pharsalia, 1740, by that eminent scholar, Mr Thomas Ruddiman, folio.
This valuable manuscript is in the author's handwriting.
- 1079 Bibliotheca Ruddimanniana, a catalogue of books belonging to Mr Thomas Ruddiman, very neatly written by himself, folio, 1l 1s
- 1080 A neat MS. of the early part of the 18th century, intituled, The patriot, or fatal virtue, a tragedy, a work of very considerable merit, the production of some Scottish poet, and apparently intended for publication, folio, 10s 6d
- X 1081 British military orders, containing extracts of such as are generally to be given to an army, &c. by J. L. Lieutenant-Colonel of the K. R. who served as a field-officer during the whole course of the late wars abroad and at home, during the Rebellion in Scotland, very neatly written about the year 1760, 4to, 5s

- 1082 A miscellaneous manuscript, in the handwriting of the late James Hardie, containing, 1. Copy of retour of the valuation of the lands in the shire of Edinburgh, 1479.—2. Memorial of the reverend Mr James Melvil, sometime minister of the gospel at Anstruther, wrote by him on the 10th August 1600, in the last year of his age, about the Spanish Armada.—3. Ane succinct minute of the most considerable writs and evidents belonging to the town of Edinburgh, as the samen is contained in the large inventory lying in the clerk's chamber.—4. Excerpts from observations on the practice of archery in England, and from some of the laws of Scotland relating to archery.—5. Contents of a collection relative to honours and dignities—with several other curious and interesting articles, all very neatly copied from the originals. folio, 11 1s
- 1083 A manuscript, in 4to, containing, 1. Note of all the decisions made in Parliament from 1661 to 1707 inclusive, concerning controverted elections of commissioners for shires and burghs.—2. Observations concerning the institution of the Court of Session, taken from a manuscript in the handwriting of Mr Patrick Grant, Lord Elchies, 11 1s
- 1084 Styles of writs, collected by the late Mr Hardie, 4to, 7s 6d
- 1085 An inquiry into the causes which facilitate the rise and progress of rebellion and insurrections in the Highlands of Scotland, and proposals for establishing the peace and tranquillity of that country, and enriching its inhabitants, 4to, 2l 2s

This manuscript is supposed to have been the production of the late Nicol Graham of Gartmore, Esq. advocate.

Of all the moderns, M. Gesner, a poet of Switzerland, has been the most successful in his pastoral compositions. He has introduced into his Idyls (as he entitles them) many new ideas. His rural scenery is often striking, and his descriptions are lively. Vide DR BLAIR'S Lectures.

This edition of the Rambler was printed at Edinburgh, by the author's permission, in weekly numbers, under the eye of Mr James Elphinston, and is now become extremely scarce; it was indeed so much so, in the year 1773, when Dr Johnson was at Edinburgh, that he could not obtain a copy for his own library.
